Occupational diseases in Lithuania: present status

Diana Adlienė and Judita Puišo
Kaunas University of Technology, Physics Department

Future activities

Our next period activities will be focused on radiation related occupational diseases searching for the links between low dose irradiation induced processes and mechanisms in the cells and tissues.